

Iacocca Global Village for Future Leaders

June 22-July 27, 2019

Become a global leader. Expand your global network. Enter a diverse world of cultures that you will be part of forever.

The Global Village is a unique cross-cultural experience that goes beyond any single study abroad or internship opportunity. Join peers from more than 35 countries and experience the power of extreme diversity. Live together, learn together and work together, developing your capacity to communicate effectively and work well across boundaries of all kinds.

This intensive, five-week business, entrepreneurship and leadership experience at Lehigh University, is open to undergraduate students, graduate students, young entrepreneurs and professionals ages 19 to 40+ from around the world. The interactive, hands-on program includes discussions with experienced leaders, dynamic workshops and sessions, a team project with a local or global business, visits to New York and Washington, DC, and more.

Form business partnerships with a vital, growing and enthusiastic Global Village alumni network of 2,100+ leaders from 139 countries. Meet with 100+ Lehigh and international faculty and executives during the program.

Work with a diverse team to develop a solution to a real problem facing a local or global business or organization. Improve your teambuilding, leadership, communication and English presentation skills.

Focus your career path and work with accomplished Global Village alumni mentor staff to map an experience-based plan for success. Customize your program to meet your individual goals.
